"John and I attended the Monterey County Composers Forum concert at Hidden Valley Music Seminars. This was our first time attending and we look forward to future concerts. The concert featured a quartet of very fine musicians and I understand that this was made possible through a grant from the Arts County for Monterey County. We spoke to several of the composers following the concert and it was quite apparent that this quartet was a very big deal for the Composers Forum. It truly was wonderful to hear these pieces with this instrumentation. Thank you for funding all sizes of arts organizations. We all contribute to the beauty of our area and your support is very much appreciated." - Susan Koza
