

Dear Friends of the Arts,

As you may know, thanks to the generosity of the Cannery Row Company, we have been able to provide affordable art studios to dozens of artists over the past 4 1/2 years at the American Tin Cannery in Pacific Grove. This summer, we will be closing the ArtWorks @Pacific Grove as a large luxury hotel will be developed at that location. We are now reaching out to our art-loving community to ask if you have or know of any commercial space for about 20 of our local artists. We are looking for a large open environment such as a warehouse or retail space, with at least 3,000 square feet. We would love to obtain one space on the Monterey Peninsula and another in the Salinas area. If you do know of a possible location, please reach out to me at jacquie@arts4mc.org.

Thank you for your support of the arts in Monterey County!

Arts4MC is bringing the Arts to summer programs throughout North Monterey County! Teaching Artists Peter Meuse and Alejandro Gomez (pictured here) bring music and joy to Castroville and Prunedale Elementary Schools while dance classes keep North Monterey County middle schoolers on their toes! We are thrilled to be back in the classroom, reaching the youth throughout Monterey County.
