

Dear Friend of the Arts,

The Arts Council proudly sponsored the 64th Annual Monterey Jazz Festival this past weekend. I have been attending since 2004, and personally, I enjoyed the smaller festival, and really appreciated the additional leg room in the arena! And it was great to be outside enjoying fantastic music and visiting with friends we usually only see once a year, at the longest running jazz festival in the world.

We are expecting another beautiful weekend, with some fun events happening including the Monterey Poetry Festival at Old Capitol Books, First Friday events in Pacific Grove, Sand City and Salinas, and PacRep's Shakespeare's Julius Caesar at the Forest Theater in Carmel.

Please enjoy the weather and some arts and culture this weekend!

Warmly,

Jacquie
