

Dear Friends of the Arts,

Did you know that the Arts Council started in 1982 by James Alinder, Ilene Tuttle, George De Groat, Todd Lueders, George Faul and Helen Kingsley, along with the support of Ansel Adams, as part of a nationwide movement powered by the National Endowment for the Arts, “to develop and assist art and cultural programs, and to promote the employment of artists within the county”?

We are so excited to celebrate 40 successful years of supporting the arts in our county, and we couldn't have done it without YOU! And we hope you will join the celebration at this year's Champions of the Arts™ on June 18th at the Monterey Marriott, where we'll honor new Champions (to be announced soon), and showcase local talent and entertainment. Tickets to the Gala open on our website on Tuesday, Feb 22nd so make sure you get your tickets quickly!

Warmly,

Jacquie Atchison
Executive Director

Arts Council Professional Artist in the Schools Program

Cesar Chavez Elementary School (Greenfield USD) children draw cheerful hearts, butterflies and rainbows in colorful chalk all across their playground during the after-school arts education program led by Brenda Scettrini-Saglio, Arts4MC teaching artist. Chalk art is a fun, educational and relaxing way to learn art outdoors!
