

Arts4MC has been quite busy lately and we are excited to keep the momentum going. Last weekend, we had an amazing time participating in the 66th Annual Monterey Jazz Festival. This week, we had the privilege to be part of the Justice Equity Diversity and Inclusion (JEDI) in the Arts Panel, where we shared resources and support for local artists. We are also thrilled to announce that ArtWorks @Seaside will be joining the Arts Habitat Artists Studio Tours this weekend, featuring the works of Carlene Ganley, Andrew Jackson, Shagufta Khan, Mariko Lonk, Kimberly Moreno, and Michele Robertson.

October is going to be an exciting month as well. On the 15th, we will be taking part in Salinas' Ciclovía to celebrate the completion of the CalTrans Clean CA Beautification Project. The three murals on Alisal, E. Market, and Sanborn have turned out beautifully and we can't wait to commemorate this achievement with our project partners, CalTrans, the City of Salinas, the artists, and the community.

On the 17th, we are hosting an Open Mic event at ArtWorks @Salinas for ages 14 to 22, featuring Monterey County Poet Laureate Daniel Summerhill and Youth Poet Laureate Mahi Shah. This is a free community event, and more details can be found below.

If you are interested in large-scale mural projects, we have an event just for you. On October 20th, we are holding our BusinessWorks series, a follow-up to last year's Mural Talk: Planning and Proposing Large-Scale Projects. This event will be held via Zoom and will feature La Neta Murals, MJ Lindo Lawyer and Joshua Lawyer, and Timothy Robert Smith.

Don't forget to follow us on social media @arts4mc to stay up-to-date with our latest news and activities.

See you soon!
