

Dear Friends of the Arts,

We are only one week away from our annual Champions of the Arts™ where we will celebrate five individuals who support and promote various forms of creative expression, such as visual arts, music, literature, theater, dance and more!

We will also present some performances to entertain you, including the world renowned speed painter Amy Burkman who will create a 36x48 painting in less than 10 minutes! Her paintings are valued starting at $3,500 and this one will be auctioned off during the Breakfast.

I hope you have already purchased your ticket because we only have a few left. Don't miss out on this spectacular event - "A New Dawn!"

Call to Artists

The Arts Council is opening a new ArtWorks location at 262 Main Street in Downtown Salinas. ArtWorks is similar to a "co-working" space, which encourages collaboration and community, and fills the need for affordable studio space for Monterey County artists. ArtWorks @Salinas will have an art gallery and seven small studio spaces for artists to sublease at an affordable rent. Rent includes all utilities, wifi and marketing.

Our ribbon cutting is scheduled for Sept 1st to coincide with the Salinas First Friday. Artists are expected to be in the studio during this event and rotate weekly working shifts on Saturdays. We also plan to feature local artists in the display windows for two months at a time, starting with Jose Ortiz of Hijos del Sol Arts in September.

If you are interested in renting a space, please contact Deborah Good, Studio Manager at infoarts4mc@gmail.com.
